Judge Palmieri, the prisoner's counsel, outlined his defense by the questions which he put. He said that he would consend that the girl was not clothed in her right mind when she killed her aunt; that he would introduce expert testimony, and that the defendant would take the stend in her own behalf. The prosecution accorted this talesman. In the midst of Judge Palmieri's interrogations of him Josefina Terranova beckened suddenly to her counsel. As he leaned over her she shook her head vigorously and whispered in his cay.

"We challange it. Travis." said Judge Palmieri. It was evident that the girl, despite her ignorance of the forms of law and her imperfect knowledge of English, meant te have a mand in the choosing of her twelve furors.

CINCINNATI, O., May 14,-A sensat ion was sprung among the Glants this morning when telegraphic orders were accived from President Pulliam sushis conduct in Saturday's game, No complaint was made against McGraw, so it is presumed that the manager so it is presumed that the manager will not be bothered. McGann says that he dad nothing further than tell Umpire Johnston the Giants were "getting the worst of it."

At the same time McGann says Joe Kelley, of Cincinnati, profanely abused the umpire and was not even put out of the game. Anyway the champlons appeared on the field minus their first baseman and Sammy Strang took the position in practice. McGraw said baseman and Sammy Strang took the position in practice. McGraw said eitlier Sammy or Bowerman would play there during the suspension of McGann. If McGann is out for any length of time it will seriously cripple the team on this trip.

They lined up with their usual ginger to-day, however, and went after one more game from the Reds. Mathewson looked like the pitcher as they warned up and the crowd gave him an ovation.

Huggins went out on three strikes.

Barry was more successful and Evers, 2b. Barry was more successful and stammed a clean single past Gilbert. Relley sacrificed to Devlin, advancing Barry to second and it was up to Seymour to turn the trick. Matty failed to get four over and Cyrus walked. Burrett slso walked and the bases were full. Corocan hit to Mathewson and the danger was ended. NO RUNS.

Mertes popped an easy fly to right which was gotsbled by Huggins. Dahlen followed with a pop to Barry. Devlin cracked a long two-bagger into deep left centre, but Gilbert was thrown out by Overall. NO RUNS.

Loubert went out on three strikes. Livingston was lucky and sneaked a single back to first and went to second as Overall walked. Both runners advanced on Huggins's hot grounder, which Rowerman nalled at first. Deving the market and bonovan said that the sore arms of the pitchers were amproving fast, and a few warm, sunshing days will fix them so that they can put a stop to several of the West-Second Inning.

Overall's quick throw stopped Bowerman at the bag. Mathewson struck out. Bresnahan's long line drive was gathered in by Kelly. NO RUNS.

Kelly plunked one against the left field fence for two bases as an opener. Seymour, the great, died on strikes. Barrett suffered a similar death and Corcoran's grounder was easy pickings for Devlin, NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Fifth Inning.

Devlin started this one with a safe drive to left for one bag. Arthur lost little time and went to second on a passed ball. Gilbert dropped a safe one back of second and Devlin took third. Bowerman forced Gilbert at second, but Devlin scored on the play. Marthewson sacrificed, and the big catcher took second. Bresnahan filed to Seymour. ONE RUN.

Huggins drove a grounder to Gilbert Huggins drove a grounder to Gilbert and died. Barry lifted an easy one to Browne. Kelly was thrown out by Dahlen. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning. Browne flipped a high one to Huggins, Donlin drove a liner straight into Sey-mour's hands. Mertes went out the same way. NO RUNS.
